

Linda Watts

Star of BBC's Friday Night is Music Night

Linda is a warm and versatile singer whose beautiful voice will enthrall and delight you. If you haven't had the pleasure of hearing Linda on radio, seeing her in Concert or on National Tour, here is an opportunity to join her as she recalls her many memories.

Sharing beautiful songs and timeless melodies from the worlds of Opera, Stage and Screen, Linda recalls her childhood memories and how she realised her ambitions to travel the world and become a professional singer

“Where the music takes me.... the music, the melodies and the memories”

.....With Unforgettable songs and Enchanting melodies Linda recalls her life in show business and her encounters with the Celebrates that we all know and love.

Linda grew up in the small Staffordshire town of Wednesbury, she started singing when she was just six years old. She was a member of the local church choir and continued singing at Concerts and Festivals throughout her teenage years, whilst studying Music at the local Girls Grammar school.

Like so many famous names in music, Linda went on to study at the Guildhall School of Music in London. She made her name in the field of popular classics, starring in BBC Radio 2's Friday Night Is Music Night and Melodies For You, as well as singing in Gala Shows and Concerts with the BBC Concert Orchestra.

Her career encompassing both classical and light music takes her worldwide, from luxury liners cruising the Caribbean and South Pacific to Concert performances at the Royal Festival Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, and Wigmore Hall, as well as Royal Gala Shows.

She has toured extensively with the Magic of the Musicals, Opera and Operetta, appearing at many of the country's leading theatres and concert halls with choirs and orchestras and on nationwide tours with many top British stars, as well as singing with the Royal Military Bands of The Scots' Guards, The Blues and Royals and The Royal Marines, including a memorable Last Night of The Proms VE Night commemoration.

Linda is a member of the Grand Order of Lady Ratlings. She works tirelessly to bring her love of music to the elderly and the infirm, and enjoys sharing her love of singing wherever she goes. She is proud to be associated with the Not Forgotten Association who provide leisure and entertainment for disabled ex-servicemen and women.

Her charm, personality and beautiful voice have captivated audiences around the world. Now take this opportunity to enjoy them for yourselves,